Welcome to the Wort!

The Silver Dollar boasts a lively history - games of chance, renowned music acts and historic events have all graced 'our stage.' Take a stroll through our historic hallways to see the performers, family and friends that form our past and our future. Thank you for dining with us!

The Beginning

In 1893, Charles J. Wort and his wife Luella homesteaded in Jackson Hole. In 1913, Charles bought four downtown Jackson lots for $25 each and built the Wort Livery Barn, boasting "good feed and proper attention to all animals." It was this site that would later become the Wort Hotel.

Meet Me at the Wort

After Charles' death in 1933, his sons John and Jess sold the family hunting and fishing lodges (what are now Signal Mountain Lodge and Leeks Marina) to realize their father's dream. The Wort Hotel opened in 1941, the Silver Dollar Bar shortly after in 1950. Open year round with genuine hospitality; the Wort immediately became the place to meet.

Games of Chance

Gambling had been outlawed in Wyoming since 1901 but the law was widely ignored, especially in tourist towns. It eventually went underground in the 1930s, the Wort moving their games from the Silver Dollar Bar to a basement room aptly named the 'Snakepit,' which of course required a password to enter.

The Wort Burns

At 7:41am on August 5th, 1980, the Wort Hotel went up in flames. A bird's nest on the rooftop neon sign caught fire and burned through the entire second floor. Before the embers had cooled, the community clamored to rebuild the Wort - and they did. In June 1981, the doors reopened (without the neon sign), signaling a celebration so successful it still lives on today as Old West Days.

We remain committed to preserving Jackson's Western heritage, and embrace our rich tradition of hospitality.

When in Jackson Hole

The stunning geography of the surrounding mountain ranges forms what was once known as Jackson's Hole. Named after an 1820s trapper, David Jackson, a 'hole' is a low valley surrounded by high mountains. Jackson, Wyoming is the name that remains.

Did you know?

Hollywood loved Jackson for its phenomenal views. When Shane was filmed in 1931, actors and crew alike stayed at the Wort Hotel. Jean Arthur is even rumored to have slid down the banister each morning, a crowd of locals greeting her at the bottom.
